

This rule amounts to nothing more than the FCC doing the work of the broadcast media companies. I can see no benefit whatsoever to the citizens of the United States that could come from this rule. I cannot believe that the FCC would even consider supporting this regulation.